

HE KNOWS NOTHING OF THE MURDER.

Ex - Policeman Tuman Knows Nothing of Fuller Case.

If ex-policeman Tuman is identified with the Fuller murder mystery, Chief of Police Hodgkins has not received any information from the San Francisco police to that effect. Chief Hodgkins, when seen today, said:

"The published account of Tuman's alleged connection with the Fuller case I believe to be misleading. So far as my information extends, I know nothing which would connect Tuman with the case and believe that the San Francisco police know of nothing detrimental to him."

When a TRIBUNE reporter called at Tuman's office, corner of Clay and Thirteenth streets this morning, Tuman was not in. He is with a young man who represents him in a business capacity during his absence. In response to questions concerning Tuman and his possible connection with the case, said:

"Mr. Tuman left for the city on the 2:15 train this morning to attend to personal business. The published accounts of his connection with the Fuller case are erroneous. As I know Mr. Tuman has no knowledge of the case, I have seen and spoken to him every day since and before the murder, and know that he was at home every night."

"He has never said anything to me about the case which would lead me to believe he knew of the existence of Nora Fuller or knew of any one who associated with her."

"The published accounts have misrepresented him, and the statements that he is in possession of important knowledge which would lead to the detection of the criminal I believe to be ridiculous."

"Mr. Tuman will return at 6 o'clock this evening and will be able to tell you what he knows."

It has been suggested by some that possibly Tuman, who is engaged in the business of loaning money to salaried people, may have had financial transactions with the person who is responsible for the death of Nora Fuller, and that the police of San Francisco are attempting to sift this clue to the bottom in the hope of running down the murderer.

NO MONEY ON A SUICIDE

Important Decision is Rendered By Circuit Court.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 17.—A decision was rendered today by Judges Caldwell, Thayer and Sanborn of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, releasing the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York from the obligation of paying $500 to the widow of Edward S. Kelly, one of its policy holders, who committed suicide in Collins, Iowa, on February 12, 1895.

The Court of Appeals reversed the decision of the United States Circuit Court of Iowa, which held that the insurance company was obliged to pay Mrs. Kelly the amount of the policy, notwithstanding that the holder of the policy would not take his life within two years of his insurance.

SCHMITZ RIGHT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—Superior Judge Carroll Cook this morning sustained the demurrer entered by Attorney Abe Hoff in the matter of the restraining order sought by John J. Quinn to prevent Auditor Barker from paying salary money to Powell Bookbinder for eleven days' service in January.

According to the decision of the court, the main issue as to the tenure of Powell and the exact legal standing of Powell and Williams, who were removed by Mayor Schmitz, is not touched upon, but the matter of the demurrer is dealt with upon its individual merits.

DAUGHTERS MEET IN WASHINGTON

Mrs. John F. Swift of San Francisco Makes a Response.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The Eleventh Continental Congress of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution convened here today. About 800 delegates and others representing Chapters in States throughout the country were present. The Congress has before it many matters of importance to the welfare of the Daughters. These include the erection of a Continental Memorial Hall in this city, the adjustment of internal disputes among some of the Western chapters which have caused much trouble in the past, needed amendments to the constitution of the order and projects for securing pensions for recently deceased war veterans. The actual fighting in the Colonial struggle with England.

The Congress was called to order this morning by the President-General, Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, wife of the United States Senator from Indiana. She showed that there were now approximately 600 Chapters. 24 Chapters having been added during the past year, increasing the membership 3,350. This makes the total membership over 40,000.

The morning session closed with a response by Mrs. John F. Swift of California to the amendments of Mrs. Fairbanks.

The Congress then took a recess until tomorrow.

WAR REVENUE TAXES WILL BE CUT DOWN UNDER THE NEW LAW.

Two Hundred and Seventy-Eight Members of the House Vote in Favor of the Measure.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—There was a large attendance on the floor of the House and in the gallery today in anticipation of the debate of the bill to repeal the war revenue taxes. Just prior to the assembling of the House the Committee on Rules met and agreed upon the form of a special rule for the consideration of the bill by the terms by which it will be brought to a vote at 4 o'clock tomorrow.

The Chaplain, in his invocation, prayed that the life of Representative Sheppard of Texas, who is dangerously ill, might be spared.

THE SPECIAL ORDER.

After some minor business had been cleared away Mr. Dazell, from the Committee on Rules, presented the special order agreed upon by that committee. Mr. Dazell explained the rule. This measure he said was presented to redeem a pledge made when the war revenue taxes were imposed that when the necessity for them had ceased they would be repealed. This was a measure, of which he said, there was practical unanimity of sentiment on both sides of the House. It was a simple repeal measure and it was deemed wise that it should be brought to a vote without complication with extraneous issues. At the conclusion of this brief statement Mr. Dazell yielded thirty minutes to Mr. Underwood of Alabama, also of the Committee on Rules.

ALABAMA MEMBER PROTESTS.

The Alabama members protested against the adoption of the rule. Mr. Underwood said he provided for the consideration of a bill to reduce taxation by, because it provided individual members from legislating their judgment or carrying out the wishes of the constituents as to what portion of the excessive taxes should be repealed.

As an instance of the tax which it was not advisable to repeal, he cited the inheritance tax, a tax which he said was levied on a class that was not levied by other taxation. Mr. Underwood did not think a general tax revision should be made, as such revision whether good or bad would unsettle present conditions and might lead to disorder.

Mr. Ball of Texas denounced the rule as but another step in the parliamentary evolution in which individualism in the House was being crushed and a few men were enthroned as the autocrats to dominate its will.

THE BILL IS PASSED.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The bill to repeal the war revenue taxes was unanimously passed, 278 members voting aye.

THE DEBATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Mr. Ball said it was reported in the papers that the President had been converted to the view that the "iron law" was necessary to prevent a whole-sale revision of the tariff.

Mr. Babcock of Wisconsin said he did not believe in complicating the repeal bill with other tariff matters, but at the first opportunity he would press his measure to amend the steel schedule.

Mr. Ivy of Virginia said the rule was such a display of cowardice as had never been seen in the House. The bill would be debated and amended in the Senate.

Mr. Cannon of Illinois argued in favor of the adoption of the rule in order that the war taxes might be repealed.

Mr. Richardson of Tennessee said there were many Republicans who were restive under the demand of their constituents for a revision of some of the tariff schedules. Mr. Babcock's excuse, he said, was lame, and he could not go back to his constituents and explain. He lost his opportunity, continued Mr. Richardson, after voting for this rule.

ALL TALK ENDED.

Mr. Dazell closed the debate, saying that in 1891 the Democrats of the House, then in the majority, under a rule swayed 649 amendments to the Wilson Tariff bill after two hours' debate. At his demand the previous question was ordered.

Mr. Richardson offered a motion to recommit the rule.

After a sharp tilt between the Speaker and Mr. Richardson, the Speaker sustained a point of order against the motion. Mr. Richardson appealed from the decision and upon a roll call the Chair was sustained, 145 to 121.

The rule was adopted, 155 to 120. Thereupon Mr. Richardson, the minority leader, arose. "I arise to make a request for unanimous consent," said he. "In view of the fact that we are not permitted to amend the pending bill, and in view of the fact that two days should be absolutely fruitless under this rule, I ask unanimous consent that the bill be put upon its passage now." (Applause of both sides.)

The Speaker put the request.

The members looked at each other with amazement. Not a sound was heard.

"There is no objection," answered the Speaker, as he brought his gavel down. "The clerk will read the bill."

Both sides of the House joined in the ringing applause that followed. The clerk then began to read the bill.

The verbal committee amendments to the bill were agreed to and the yeas and nays were taken on its passage.

The House at 2:50 P. M. adjourned.

TAFT AGREES WITH FUNSTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Governor Taft, in his testimony before the Senate Committee on the Philippines today, stated more succinctly than he has heretofore done his theory, which he said is also the theory of the Philippine Commission, as to what Congress should do to find a way of supplying the Filipino people with a form of government. His plan is first to give the people a qualified suffrage which should be enlarged through education in the American language and institutions. Second, to institute within a reasonably short time a local legislature to consist of two bodies, one to be chosen by vote and the other to be appointive; third, to permit the islands to send two or three representatives to Washington.

In reply to questions Governor Taft said he agreed with General Funston that the establishment of a popular assembly would give opportunity to demagogues to stir up the people, but that he did not include in these designations all persons who are opposed to American control. There are, he said, many men in the islands who conscientiously oppose the domination of the United States. To grant independence would, he thought, have the effect of consigning the 50 per cent of the uneducated people in the islands to the same servile position they held under Spanish rule. He thought there should be a declaration on the part of the United States of its intention to hold the islands indefinitely with the understanding that when they are suitable for such control they may be given a quasi-independence. Such a pronouncement by this country would be welcomed by many and would do much good.

MAYOR WILL NOT APPROVE FRANCHISES.

Los Angeles Executive Sends Them Back to the Council.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17.—Mayor Snyder today returned to the City Council, without approval, the ordinances recently passed granting to the Pacific Electric Railway Company various street railway franchises, the most important of which permits the hauling of electric freight cars through the streets of Los Angeles. The Mayor in vetoing the ordinances gave as his reasons the loose construction of the clause granting the railway freight carrying privilege without adequate protection to the city's interests and the inadequate return received by the city for the special privileges granted.

The action of the Mayor will probably result in the reopening of the contest and settlement of the bids, as it is thought there is not a sufficient number of Councilmen favorable to the ordinances in their present shape to pass them over the Mayor's veto.

The entire question of the scale of these important privileges is likely to be reopened.

THEY HANGED THE NEGRO.

Mob Surrounds the Jail and Takes Out a Prisoner.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 17.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from New Madrid, Missouri, says that last night a crowd of masked men overpowered the jailer and took a negro, Louis Wright, a short distance from town and hanged him. Richard & Pringle's Negro Minstrels gave an entertainment there Saturday night when an altercation arose between one of the musicians and some of the white town boys.

Several of the boys undertook to take the musicians out when the negroes on the stage began to shout. Several in the audience were hit but no one was seriously hurt. The negroes ran out the back way to their private car, which was soon surrounded by armed men but no violence was done owing to the arrival of the town marshal.

All the negroes were put in jail and as the result of an examination the name of the one who did the shooting was discovered. He was lynched and the others will be released.

Several of the prisoners were badly beaten Saturday night.

FIEND AT WORK ACROSS THE BAY.

Chief Hodgkins Has a Theory to Advance in the Case.

The second mysterious crime in San Francisco, the shooting of Miss Anna Anderson, a domestic employed by Edwin L. Snell, 224 Ashbury avenue, last night by a heavy-set, middle-sized man, wearing a mask, recalls the series of murders which were committed by an unknown fiend in Denver last year.

Chief of Police Hodgkins states that the published descriptions of the assailant of Miss Anderson corresponds to the description of the Denver monster, who wantonly took the lives of several young women of respectable families, by shooting them without apparent motive.

In event of a motive not being developed for the shooting of Miss Anderson, it is possible that the Denver murders may furnish a clue for the police to work on.

"The victims in Denver were all respectable girls. This added to the horror which spread over the whole community. The human fiend was a heavily built man, who invariably wore a mask. He attempted to seize his victims and shot them if the least resistance was offered to his advances."

"The similarity of the Denver crimes and the one committed in San Francisco has suggested the theory that possibly the Denver fiend has appeared in San Francisco and may be responsible for Nora Fuller's death as well as for the wounding of Miss Anderson."
